SOURCE:

1. The Soviet military settlement in Legnica is located in an enclosed area in the south-southeast section of the city, bounded in the west by Albrechtstrasse, in the north by Opitzstrasse, in the east by Jauerstrasse and in the south by Bitschenstrasse.
2. This enclosed and guarded area provides office and living space for approximately 75% of the members of the Soviet forces in Legnica. The main entrance to this sector is on Albrechtstrasse, with all other streets running into the sector being blocked off by a wooden fence 2½ or 3 meters high. Armed guards are stationed at the main entrance and the perimeter is patrolled. Entry into the sector is permitted only to members of the Soviet forces having special passes issued by the Soviet headquarters. If it is necessary for a visitor to enter the sector, he is accompanied by an armed escort.
3. The headquarters of the Legnica Soviet administration are located in the former "Haus der deutschen Wehrmacht", on Holteistrasse. Thirteen Soviet generals are stationed in this headquarters. They reside in the home of Teichert (fnu), the former German factory manager; this house is located in the vicinity of the headquarters building.
4. The number of Soviet troops stationed in Legnica amounts to about 40,000 (sic). In addition to the troops there are the administrative employees and dependents. The total number of Soviet personnel in Legnica is believed to be increasing.
